

CLEARWATER Bullets FAST PITCH

Clearwater Fast Pitch Softball Group, Inc. Travel, Tournament, and On-Field Rules

1. There is no mandatory play rule.
2. All playing decisions, including the starting line-up, are made by the manager and coaches based on their assessment of each player's ability, attitude and participation.
3. Each player is expected to report to the field one (1) hour prior to each game and/or tournament play, unless told otherwise by the manager.
4. Each player is responsible for bringing her required uniform pieces to each game and tournament.
5. Players are required to clean up the dugout after each game and practice.
6. Players must assume she is practicing or playing, if scheduled, rain or shine, unless notified otherwise.
7. Each player is responsible for her own food and drink during tournaments.
8. When playing in tournaments that required an overnight stay, no player is permitted to stay in a hotel/motel room without her parent(s) or room mom. If team rooms are provided, at least one room mom will be in the team room with the players at all times.
9. Players, parents, and coaches are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner. We are representing the Clearwater Bullets organization.
10. Failure to follow the above rules will result in action to be determined by the Manager.
